Overview of the Program

SUMMARY

GTEC will provide a 3 day program in its Berlin hub and enable representatives from other ecosystems to engage with the local ecosystems. The focus of the program is built on three pillars: Interact, Learn and Collaborate.

Pillar Interact:

Interaction will be delivered through four different sessions:

- a) Founders Brunch (3+ founders)
- b) Engagement with GTEC
- c) Interaction at Berlin innovation centers (TBD)
- d) Dinner sessions with successful founders from Berlin

Pillar Learn:

Learn will be facilitated by lectures delivered by the GTEC ExEd team:

- a) Welcome to Germany's Startup Capital
- b) Learn from ExEd Team (Topic TBD)
- c) Open Lectures by serial entrepreneurs (Content TBD) and reflection sessions

Pillar Collaborate:

Collaboration will be fostered by:

- a) Spending three days with fellow ecosystem players
- b) I solve your challenge
- c) Define actions

BACKGROUND

Next to building up relationships and collaborating with each other, ecosystem representatives seek to engage, learn from and interact with players in the German startup scene to spur creativity, become connected and drive innovation.

OUTCOMES

1. Meet and interact with the startup ecosystem (Investors, partners, peers, etc.)
2. Learn about the characteristics of Berlin as a startup ecosystem
3. Inspire new cross-border partnerships
4. Build strong relationships along ecosystems and foster collaboration

SETUP

Duration: 5 days of full program+ 3 weeks of coworking space and light business support

Location: Berlin

Number of participants: 12 - 14

Date: 22 - 26 October 2018

MEET THE BERLIN ECOSYSTEM DAY 1

SETTING THE STAGE, CREATING THE RIGHT MINDSET AT GTEC

We start with a “setting the stage” session by Berlin partners that will provide us with insight about the Berlin startup landscape, its characteristics and history in a 90-minute keynote followed by a Q&A session.

Later on we will have a tour of the GTEC offices based in the new WeWork building at the city center. The tour will be followed by a tour and the story and vision of the place.

Afterwards, we are going to meet each other and discuss the different ecosystems we are coming from and how we can further build our ecosystems and create global engagements.

In the evening, participants enjoy a dinner together (optional) and are free to meet more startup founders and ecosystem players in Berlin’s vibrant scene (we will share some location tips).

MEET THE BERLIN ECOSYSTEM DAY 2

ENGAGE, INTERACT AND LEARN IN BERLIN

We will start our second day with a breakfast talk held by one of GTEC's MDs to set sail for the day. After that, we will have short inspirational talks from various entrepreneurs, investors, corporates, VC's etc that will share their insights about the Berlin ecosystem with you.

Arriving at the next hub (TBC), participants will meet up with more ecosystem players to have an intensive thought and idea exchange. Participants will have the opportunity to share their stories as well as listen to the stories of their Berlin peers. The goal is to engage and understand the differences and commonalities of the the ecosystems.

After visiting in different hubs, we are going to continue with a sightseeing tour that will provide you with different smells and flavours that the city of Berlin has to offer, since Berlin is not only a tech ecosystem but also interesting and fascinating place for different cultures that coming together.
